

BACKCOUNTRY BASICS

WINTER PURSUITS CAMP

For centuries, skis were required to chase game and gather firewood in winter time. Snowshoes were originally designed to mimic a wolf's ability to stay above deep snow. These traditional ways of winter travel helped communities and villages survive and thrive. This cross country skiing and snowshoeing camp provides kids the opportunity to learn the sport and practice the basic techniques needed to be successful. Winter pursuits offer a lifetime of health benefits and can be enjoyed by anyone.
